Challenge Exam Guidelines

1. Only matriculated undergraduates are eligible to take a Challenge Exam.
2. The relevant academic department determines the foreign language courses, if any, for which it will offer Challenge Exams.
3. A maximum of 16 credits may be accumulated through the Challenge Exam Program. This total is included in the 30 credit limit on examination credits, including AP and CLEP, which can be applied toward the bachelor's degree.
4. Challenge Exams cannot be taken in foreign language courses that are prerequisites for courses already passed.
5. Challenge Exams cannot be taken for 111-level courses.
6. Challenge Exams cannot be taken in foreign language courses that already appear on the student's Stony Brook transcript, including courses transferred, registered (except during add/drop period), passed, failed, withdrawn from, or incomplete, or credited through examination.
7. Students may not take a Challenge Exam if they received college academic credit in high school or at another college in the course being challenged or a higher level course.
8. Challenge Exams cannot be taken more than once.
9. Challenge Exam credit does not count toward full-time student status, or academic standing.
10. Challenge Exam credit does not fulfill the University residence requirement or satisfy the 55 credits in residence required of candidates for degrees with distinction.
11. Challenge Exam credit may be used to fulfill upper division credit for foreign language courses at the 300-level and higher.
12. Credits from the Challenge Exam may be used to fulfill foreign language major and minor requirements, pending approval of the Undergraduate Program Director in the respective department.
13. Students who receive academic advising and academic departmental approval to take a Challenge Exam are eligible to take the exam by the end of the current semester, unless the applicant ceases to meet the eligibility requirements.
14. The grading option for the Challenge Exam is satisfactory/unsatisfactory (S/U). S grades appear on the student's transcript. The U grade will not appear on the student's transcript.
15. Credit is not awarded for Challenge Exams in foreign languages not included in Stony Brook's curriculum.
16. The University does not guarantee proctors for every language.

Information for students enrolled in the Chinese, Japanese, or Korean Teacher Preparation Program:

Students enrolled in the CHI, JPN, or KOR Teacher Preparation Program may earn up to twenty-one (21) Challenge Exam credits. They are exempt from items 4 and 7 noted above, but are not permitted to enroll in CHI 111, JPN 111, or KOR 111 if they receive Challenge Exam credit for any CHI, JPN, or KOR courses at the 112-level or higher. Approval for Challenge Exam courses is required by the respective Language Advisor and the Foreign Language Director.
