Stony Brook University Self-Study Design Document

This document lays out the path for the reaffirmation of our accreditation ending with the site visit from Middle States in Spring 2024.

About the Middle States Commission on Higher Education

As a regional accrediting body, the Middle States Commission on Higher Education ("Middle States") examines each of its member institutions periodically to help promote educational excellence and ensure compliance with its outlined standards of quality. Stony Brook University received its initial accreditation from Middle States in 1957. Our Middle States membership demonstrates our commitment to self-assessment and to providing a comprehensive world-class education, which inspires lifelong learning.
