OLLI LECTURE SERIES PRESENTS:
GLENN GEBHARD

Two Part Lecture
Virtual via Zoom*

Thursday, August, 20, 2020	Monday, August 24, 2020
10:00 am	12:00 noon
Part 1: Lecture by Glenn Gebhard	Part 2: Q & A with Glenn Gebhard

After Part 1, you will receive an email with the link and password to Gebhard's film,
Cuba The Forgotten Revolution, that you should watch prior to Part 2 of the lecture (8/24/20)

TOPIC TO BE DISCUSSED:
CUBA: THE FORGOTTEN REVOLUTION

This lecture, and subsequent film viewing, will highlight the Cuban revolution that most people have never heard of: those who were instrumental in defeating Fulgencio Batista, but were under-recognized by the Castro regime after it took control in 1959. Two leading figures, Jose Antonio Echeverria, and Frank Pais, were instrumental to this victory. This lecture will give a brief overview of the history of Cuba leading up to the 1950s revolution, the importance of others beside Fidel Castro and Che Guevara, and finally highlight the issue of "who writes history?"

GLENN GEBHARD, PRODUCER/ DIRECTOR

Glenn Gebhard is an Emmy® award winning film and video producer/director of documentaries and narrative films. He is also a professor at Loyola Marymount University's School of Film and Television in Los Angeles, California. Gebhard achieved Academy Award consideration in for the short documentary film "Victims of Another War: The Aftermath of Parental Alienation". Gebhard's latest documentaries are "Sarah Cecile" a documentary about international child abduction by parents which was produced for P.A.C.T, and NGO based in London. Also, "Cuba: A Lifetime of Passion", which aired on PBS, and "Cuba: The Forgotten Revolution", co-produced by WTIU PBS in Bloomington, Indiana, and released by American Public Television to PBS nationwide. "Cuba: The Forgotten Revolution" won an Emmy® for "best documentary" and streamed on Netflix. Gebhard recently completed "American Rebels in Cuba".