OLLI at SBU's Plan for a Safe Return To Campus this Fall

The OLLI at SBU Program will be returning to campus and face-to-face learning, along with other formats this Fall!

The return to campus & face-to-face learning is subject to any changes or updates made to COVID-19 regulations and guidance set forth by SBU, the NYS Governor & the CDC.

University Leadership, the OLLI at SBU President's Council, OLLI Advisory Board, Workshop Leaders and members are continuing to work together to make plans for our safe return to campus this Fall.

We plan to offer a variety of workshop formats for our members, such as in person; both on and off campus, on zoom, and hybrid.

At this time we are gathering necessary information about workshops, the needs and preferences of workshop leaders, and facilities to make informed decisions on the strategic implementation of returning to campus, and will continue to update you on things such as registration and scheduling.

Safety protocols on social distancing, testing, and vaccinations are being followed closely and we will continue to update you as things evolve in the coming weeks!

Thank you for your continued support of the OLLI at SBU Program!

We are so excited to see you this Fall!

updates on OLLI at SBU's safe return to campus will be included on the website, via email and in the "What's Happening Newsletter".
