

STONY BROOK UNIVERSITY

OLLI LECTURE SERIES PRESENTS:

TOM ROCK

Tuesday, April 14, 2020

*Virtual via Zoom

10:15-11:15 am

TOPIC TO BE DISCUSSED:

CONVERSATION WITH TOM ROCK ON HIS LATEST BOOK, MIRACLE MOMENTS IN NEW YORK GIANTS FOOTBALL HISTORY

MIRACLE MOMENTS IN
NEW YORK GIANTS
FOOTBALL HISTORY

"Tom Rock takes us through the Giants time machine and brings to life iconic plays, players and games from a hallowed franchise. From the Sneakers Game to Frozen to Wide Right to The Catch, Miracle Moments lets every Giants fan re-live iconic moments in team history. Tom dedicates this book to Giants fans near and far, past and future. He achieved that goal with a TD for the ages!"

Bruce Beck, lead sports anchor@WNBC-TV

TOM ROCK

Tom Rock is an award-winning sports journalist for Long Island's Newsday since 1996. He has covered many sports but began his football coverage of the National Football League in 2006 and the New York Giants exclusively in 2008. His articles have been cited numerous times by the New York Press Club, Press Club of Long Island, the APSE (Associated Press Sports Editors), and the New York City Chapter of the Society of Professional Journalists among others. Tom has written two popular sports books, "Game Seven" and "Miracle Moments in New York Giants Football History" He lives in Sound Beach with his wife, Amanda, and their three children.