OLLI at Stony Brook University
Volunteer Identification and Agreement Code of Conduct Agreement

All members must review and acknowledge understanding of the following:

Member Code of Conduct

Please affirm your understanding and acceptance of the following terms below:

The goal of the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at Stony Brook University is to create an environment both on and off campus of feeling welcomed, respected and appreciated. The ability to share freely without judgement ideas and experiences through participation in workshops, events and trips that are both educational and social with a goal of maximizing the learning experience for all members. Many of our programs offer a forum for the lively and even passionate exchange of views. To that end, our learning community follows principles of courtesy and mutual respect that promote reasoned discourse and intellectual honesty. Opposing viewpoints are honored and appreciated to preserve the dignity of others.

Transgressions may include denigrating other's views or opinions, threatening behaviors, offensive or abusive language, disruptive classroom conduct, sexual harassment or discrimination and monopolizing discussions. Personal attacks are especially unwarranted. There is no place for dismissive, hostile, or derogatory comments about or towards workshop leaders, OLLI members, or Stony Brook University staff.

All OLLI participants are expected to treat the Stony Brook University campus, University Staff, Faculty, Administrators and Students with the utmost level of respect in a manner that supports the safety, freedom and the well-being of others. OLLI participants who do not adhere to the principles of respect and courtesy will be removed from the OLLI program and/or denied the privilege of future participation.

* I agree to the terms and conditions.
