Orientation Leaders (OLs) are role models as well as student leaders dedicated to being sources of support and information for new first-year and transfer students. They play a major role in facilitating the adjustment of new students and their families to the Stony Brook community. They share accurate information about academic, personal, and social resources while working collaboratively with faculty, professional staff, and student staff from other areas on campus.

OL Responsibilities: OLs assist with orientation events in the following ways:
- Leading discussion groups with incoming students & family members
- Assisting in the preparation of orientation activities and materials
- Acquainting new students with campus services and building locations
- Aiding in the development of class schedules
- Assisting in the class registration process
- Conducting campus tours

Selection Criteria: We are looking for a diverse group of motivated undergraduate student leaders who possess the following qualities:
- Good academic & disciplinary standing (minimum cumulative and semester Stony Brook GPA of 2.5. Previous GPA will be used for first semester transfer students.)
- Enrolled in Fall 2019 courses
- Desire to assist new students in their transition to Stony Brook
- Campus or community involvement (i.e. service, extra-curricular activities, etc.)
- Punctual and dependable
- Team player
- Positive attitude
- Flexibility and Adaptability
- Ability to think on your feet
- Good communication skills
- Ability to work with diverse students, parents, faculty, and staff
- Desire to develop leadership and role modeling skills, including on-campus, online, and in the community

Benefits: Compensation and benefits are as follows:
- Financial Compensation and on-campus summer housing (subject to federal and state income taxes)
  - OLs who meet the following criteria may request summer housing provided by the Orientation Office: 1) Live on campus during the spring 2019 and/or fall 2019 semester(s) AND 2) Have a permanent address 25 miles or more from campus. The first ten (10) hours worked each week will go towards housing costs. OLs will be paid for time worked after the first ten (10) hours. (Please note that you must be registered for Summer 2019 OR Fall 2019 classes in order to reside on campus.)
- Breakfast and lunch during orientation sessions
- Orientation Leader staff shirts and jacket
- Valuable leadership development opportunities including working as part of a team, public speaking, flexibility, thinking on your feet, and small group facilitation
- Connections with faculty, staff, and peers that often lead to other opportunities on campus
- Develop great friendships
- Possible opportunity to participate in year round social and professional activities through the orientation office

Terms of Employment:
- Ability to attend all training dates and required meetings (below)
- Abide by all University student conduct codes at all times including drug and alcohol policies
- Full preparation for, prompt attendance at, and complete participation in summer orientation sessions (dates below)
- Positive and effective responses to reasonable program needs, including setting up and cleaning up of program area
