As we prepare to begin a new semester, we wish to welcome back returning students as well as incoming Freshman and transfer students. We hope you all have had a safe and enjoyable summer and are ready to begin the Fall 2020 semester! Keep an eye out for this undergraduate newsletter, which will be sent out biweekly, bringing you the latest psychology news and opportunities!

SBU or Psychology Department News/Events

A message for our majors from the psychology department was sent out on July 30, 2020. You can click here to see the message if you missed it.

- Check out the Undergraduate Psychology website for more information about the department as well as some Frequently Asked Questions and Tips and Tricks.
- For incoming first years and transfers: The Psychology Peer Mentoring program provides one-to-one mentor-mentee pairings in hopes of providing a personal support system for new students. Click here for more information. If you are interested in being assigned a peer mentor, fill in the application here. (Application deadline: Monday, September 7th or until positions are filled). For more information, email: psy_peer_mentoring@stonybrook.edu. Also, check out info for New Students.

Research/internship/scholarship opportunities on or off campus

Student Scholars are invited to present as part of the 8th Annual Black Doctoral Network Virtual Conference (October 29-31, 2020). Abstracts may be submitted by undergraduate, graduate and doctoral students from all racial backgrounds and on any topic. Decision notifications will be sent on a weekly basis starting August 28, 2020, with the final deadline on September 30, 2020. Click here for more information or if you are interested to submit an abstract.

If you are interested in on campus research opportunities, learn about research courses here. Click here for current opportunities.
