Notes for Psychology undergraduate students
Week of August 31, 2020

Note: To see the links, you may need to use your Stony Brook email login.
Submit your news items at the following link for the next news blast:
https://forms.gle/kosxH1jsJmtBCfQx9

SBU or Psychology Department News/Events

UPDATE Looking to get involved on campus through student organizations or events? Check out the updated Undergraduate calendar for events, opportunities, and meetings that may be of particular interest for Psychology majors.

Have you attained a scholarship, fellowship, award, or any Psychology relevant achievements recently? Submit information about the achievement through the following link to be included on the Student Spotlight section in the next news blast! https://forms.gle/kosxH1jsJmtBCfQx9

Stony Brook’s Virtual Fall 2020 Involvement Fairs will be occurring on Friday, September 4th, from 2PM-6PM. Click here for more information. Be sure to check out Psychology relevant organizations such as: Psychology Student Alliance, Psi Chi, Neuroscience Axis!

Useful Links:
- Check out the Undergraduate Psychology website for more information about the department as well as some Frequently Asked Questions and Tips and Tricks.
- For incoming first years and transfers: The Psychology Peer Mentoring program provides one-to-one mentor-mentee pairings in hopes of providing a personal support system for new students. Click here for more information. For more information, email: psy_peer_mentoring@stonybrook.edu. Also, check out info for New Students.
- Frequently Asked Questions from Academic and Transfer Advising Services

Job opportunities and career-related news

The NYS & CSEA Partnership will be hosting a series of Skills for Success webinars for Fall 2020. With 25 webinars scheduled from September to December 2020, participants will be provided with the knowledge, skills, and tools needed to meet their personal and professional development goals. For further information, access their website here.

Stony Brook’s Career Center will be running all their annual job and internship fairs virtually through Handshake this fall. Students and alumni will be able to pre-scheduled ten-minute video appointments with employers, make sure to register and sign up when appointment slots open up! (Sign-ups open: Tuesday, September 8th at 8PM)

Research/internship/scholarship opportunities on or off campus

If you are interested in on campus research opportunities, learn about research courses here. Click here for current opportunities. It is never too late or too early to do research. Go to your professor’s office hours for the courses you like and ask them for advice.

Other information

----------------------
Please do not respond to this email. Look for the contact person indicated in each link if a reply is requested.

Thank you,
Psychology Undergrad Office
For information about Psychology Advising, click this link or write an email to psych_advising@stonybrook.edu

----------------------
University support for students: the Student Support Team, Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS), Student Accessibility Support Center (SACS), Center for Prevention and Outreach, and more at this link.