

STONY BROOK ENTREPRENEURS CHALLENGE 2022

Looking For All Cool Business Ideas

Applications open: Monday, December 6, 2021 • Application deadline: Tuesday, March 1, 2022

The Stony Brook Entrepreneurs Challenge has awarded more than half a million dollars to Stony Brook student entrepreneurs. Pitch your idea to a panel of experienced venture funders, entrepreneurs and business professionals — and you may be selected for NSF I-Corps Site and/or the regional competition for funding. Open to any student/any program/any level.

For more information: <https://www.stonybrook.edu/commcms/sbdc/student-entrepreneurs/2022Challenge>

Next Steps:

Request an online appointment with a business advisor (choose Suffolk County Stony Brook SBDC): nysbdc.org/selector/ReqForCons/formo.aspx

Before you pitch to the campus judging panel on March 10, 2022, test your business thesis in ZAP, the beginning of the customer discovery process that has helped almost 650 startups get more than $300M in funding. ZAP program scheduled during the semester intersession, January 12 and 19, 2022.

- Local Stony Brook Competition: March 10, 2022
- Regional Competition: March 22, 2022
- State Competition: April 27, 2022

All competitions and ZAP program (I-Corps Site) will be conducted via Zoom.

Click the link or scan bar-code to apply:

lp.constantcontactpages.com/sv/9xpsNrl/SBEC2022

Economic Development

AT STONY BROOK UNIVERSITY

Stony Brook Research