

Student Employee Trainings Fall Semester 2018

Student Employee Orientation [Open to NEW Student Employees]

In order to work on campus as a Stony Brook student employee, students must attend a new student employee orientation. Students will learn about work eligibility, types of positions, work hour restrictions, using Stony Brook SOLAR, and workplace etiquette. Students should register for one of the following events:

1. In Person: Monday, September 10th, 3-4pm, Career Center Workshop Room
To register: <https://stonybrook.joinhandshake.com/events/173048>
2. Online Session:
To access: <https://stonybrook.joinhandshake.com/events/170711>

Professional Development Trainings [Open to ALL Student Employees]

Online Webinars:

- Workplace Etiquette
- Receiving Feedback
- Exemplary Customer Service
- Public Speaking 101
- Transferable Soft Skills
- Conflict Resolution
- Negotiation Skills in the Workplace
- Getting a Job as An International Student

Access all webinars here: <http://www.stonybrook.edu/commcms/student-employment/training-events/Mini%20Training%20Videos.html>

In Person Presentations:

*Are You Career Ready? Let's identify your career competencies!

Employers are looking to hire college students who know how to use their talents, strengths and interests. Mastering these Career Readiness Competencies will prepare you for a successful transition into the workplace and will get you digital credentials that you can display on social media platforms or your resume.

1. Friday, October 19th, 2pm-3pm, Career Center Workshop Room
To register: <https://stonybrook.joinhandshake.com/events/176248>

*Ace Your Technical Interview-presented by Google: <https://stonybrook.joinhandshake.com/events/169681>

*Preparing for the Job Fair, presented by Broadridge: <https://stonybrook.joinhandshake.com/events/169052>

All Career Center Related Events: <https://stonybrook.joinhandshake.com/events>