

Women of Color Group

Spring 2019

Wednesdays at 1pm at CAPS starting February 13th

This drop-in group provides support to students who self-identify as women of color.

A space for women who want to explore and process their identity as women of color on the SBU campus.

A space for students who are coping with feeling that they are the "only" or one of a few on campus/in the classroom.

A group for those seeking a sense of community with other women of color.

No registration is required for this group.
