Join us to show your commitment to ending all forms of relationship and dating violence, and support for victims and survivors everywhere. Our community is stronger when we stand together for what we believe in, and we hope that you will take a stand and walk with us on October 29. Be sure to check out www.stonybrook.edu/cpo for additional events and programs.

For more information or to get involved, contact Christine Szaraz christine.szaraz@stonybrook.edu

WEDNESDAY, 10/29/14
CAMPUS LIFETIME//////
TAKE A STAND / WALK WITH ME

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AWARENESS EVENT

Schedule:

1:00pm – SAC Plaza
Performance by Swallow This March
Led by the Spirit of Stony Brook Marching Band

1:30pm – SAC Auditorium
Rally & Information Fair
University & Community Speakers

1:45pm – SAC Auditorium
Panel Discussion on Campus Sexual/Relationship Violence Policies and Resources
Speakers will include representatives from Academic Affairs, Counseling and Psychological Services, Student Health Services, University Community Standards, University Police Department, University Title IX Coordinator, and VIBS Family Violence and Rape Crisis Center.

CAN'T MAKE THE EVENT?

Wearing purple (the symbolic color of domestic violence awareness) or putting a sign in your office window on 10/29 are meaningful and visible ways to show your support!