The Student Conduct Appeal Process For Residential Students

Students are eligible to appeal decisions made within the student conduct process. The appeal must be submitted within 7 days using the link from the summary letter.

Grounds for Appeal

Students may appeal a student conduct matter decision on the following limited grounds:
1. Significant violation of student conduct procedures;
2. New information, unavailable at the time of the hearing, has become available and could have substantially impacted the decision; and/or
3. The sanction(s) issued is/are disproportionate in relation to the student’s conduct record and/or nature of the violation.

Appeal Reviewed

Your appeal will be reviewed by a separate appeal officer who was not your conduct officer during your student conduct matter.

Decision Sustained

If the decision is sustained (stays the same) on your appeal, you are responsible for completing the educational interventions originally assigned to you.

Decision Overturned

If the decision is overturned, your educational interventions may be altered to better fit the situation at hand.

The student(s) shall be notified in writing of the decision. The decision of the University official will be final.
