The Student Conduct Process For Residential Students

Report Received
- Reports of incidents are received from UPD, RHDs and RAs that name specific students.

Possible Violation(s)
- If there is a possibility that a named student’s behavior violated a policy, a meeting with the student is scheduled.

No Violation(s)
- If there is no possibility that a named student’s behavior violated any policies, the student is not contacted.

Meetings Notice Letter Sent
- Students have a reflective meeting with a trained staff member. During the meeting, they have an opportunity to share their perspective on the incident and are provided resources.

Summary Letter Sent
- Letters are sent to students after student conduct meetings that indicate if a student is responsible for any alleged violations.

Intervention(s)
- If a student is found responsible for any violations, they may be assigned educational interventions designed to help them learn more about our policies.

Appeal
- Students are eligible to appeal decisions made within the student conduct process. The appeal must be submitted within 7 days using the link from the summary letter.

Not Responsible
- If a student is found not responsible, their involvement within the process ends.
