This is the Code of Student Responsibility, which is referred throughout this document as the Code. The Code is applicable to all Stony Brook students, including any person who has accepted admittance to the University, undergraduates, graduates, professional students, and certificate program participants, matriculated and non-matriculated students, regardless of number of credits the person is enrolled in. This Code provides the policies and procedures governing student behavior at Stony Brook University.

Policies make it possible for people to live together and function in an orderly way, protecting the rights of the community while respecting the rights of each individual. You should be able to carry on your daily business safely, peacefully, and productively while at Stony Brook University; these policies and procedures have been designed to help accomplish this. The Code is intended to provide you with the University’s expectations and also to support compliance with the state and federal laws related to matters such as those involving drugs, alcohol, weapons, discrimination, sexual assault or abuse, and racial, sexual, or sexual-preference harassment.

This Code is not the only source of policies and procedures governing student conduct at Stony Brook University. Students must also follow applicable policies found in the University Policy Manual1, the Rules of Public Order2, policies and procedures issued by the Office of Student Affairs (including Campus Residences Terms of Occupancy3), and any policies and procedures issued by a school/college/academic program in which the student is enrolled. Students should also familiarize themselves with academic integrity policies and the University’s research misconduct policy (see Academic Dishonesty and Research Misconduct information in the Appendix). All students should become familiar with these important items. All University policies and related documents may be accessed through the Stony Brook University website.

PREAMBLE

The following statements of policies and procedures are collectively known as the Code of Student Responsibility.

Fundamental to the achievement of community among the members of the University is the recognition by all such members that each shares a responsibility to observe University policies. This obligation, which is an extension of the citizen’s responsibility to observe the law of the land, is an essential corollary to participation in the academic rights afforded to members of the University.

Conduct appropriate to a student at Stony Brook University promotes the individual’s own academic pursuits and contributes to meeting the community’s educational objectives. An individual’s conduct becomes a concern of the University if it adversely affects the academic interests of other members of the University community or the University’s pursuit of its educational priorities. It is thus not the purpose of the University policies to duplicate the public statutes. The University cannot and does not condone violations of law and clearly recognizes that the laws of the land operate in full force on its campus. It also reserves its own special authority for the conduct policies that affect its particular interests as an academic community. Violations of Federal or State laws or local ordinances that occur within the jurisdiction of Stony Brook University may be subject to the University’s student conduct process.

If a violation of law occurs on campus it is also a violation of University policy and the University may institute proceedings against the Respondent(s). Such action by the University is independent of and may proceed in parallel with civil or criminal action. Ordinarily, the University will not pursue off-campus violations unless such violations are deemed to adversely affect the safety and security of the University, University property or individual members of the University community. For information on living responsibly off-campus, visit: http://studentaffairs.stonybrook.edu/ocliving/.

As a general rule, violations of this Code and the sanctions that may be imposed will not be routinely reported to parents. However, in the case of serious violations of Federal, State, or Local law, including alcohol and other drugs violations, or when instances of medical/psychological emergencies come to the University’s attention, the University may notify parents in cases where it is believed the student might benefit.

II. EXCEPTIONAL PROCEDURES

Students are expected to maintain a reasonable level of concern for their own self-welfare as well as for the safety and well-being of others. Individuals whose behavior is alleged to pose a threat to the health and safety of themselves or others or to significantly disrupt University activity may be in violation of the Code. The University may use extraordinary procedures to protect the safety and well-being of the student and others. Such measures include, but are not limited to: family/parental notification, mandated assessment and/or temporary or permanent separation from the University. The following fall under exceptional procedures:

1. Interim Suspension
   Upon receipt of credible allegations of Code of Student Responsibility violations, the President or designee may suspend a student or students on an interim basis whenever the continued presence of such a student would constitute a danger to the student or to the safety of persons or property on the premises of the institution, or his/her presence would pose a threat of disruptive interference with the normal conduct of the institution’s activities and functions, or the seriousness of the charges warrants such action. The interim suspension may apply to a portion of the University or the entire campus. Students who wish to appeal an interim suspension may submit a written appeal within seven (7) calendar days to the Office of University Community Standards (UCS) or designee to address the alleged violations and demonstrate the basis for the interim measure is not warranted. The information will be reviewed and responded to in a timely manner. The designated University official may require individual meetings with the parties involved before making a decision. Upon review, the interim measures may be upheld, rescinded, or modified. A student must be in compliance with the terms of their interim measures at the time of their request for such a review. Students who do not exercise their right to appeal their Interim Suspension or whose appeal is denied will be academically withdrawn from the University pending the outcome of the student conduct process.

III. STUDENT CONDUCT POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

A. General University Policies

1. Respect for Persons
   Treating people with respect means acting in a manner that supports the safety, freedom and well-being of others. The nature and history of the relationship between the parties involved in alleged violations of this Code shall in no way diminish the seriousness of incidents. The following violations are specifically prohibited:
a. Offenses against persons: No student shall threaten, assault, hazzle, intimidate, bully or otherwise physically, psychologically, verbally, or in writing by electronic means or otherwise, abuse any other person. This includes, but is not limited to, incidents of bias-related acts of assault or abuse, or any incidents of verbal, written, physical, psychological harassment or abuse. No student shall post or distribute disparaging or compromising images of another, altered or otherwise or post denigrating text on, but not limited to, the following modes: internet websites or newspapers, without the express consent/authorization of the other individual. No student shall retaliate against another member of the community for bringing forth a complaint or serving as a witness.

b. Stalking: No student shall engage in stalking. The term stalking means intentionally engaging in a course of conduct, directed at a specific person, which is likely to cause a reasonable person to fear for his or her safety or the safety of others or cause that person to suffer substantial emotional damage. Examples include, but are not limited to, repeatedly following such person(s), repeatedly committing acts that alarm, cause fear, or seriously annoy such other person(s) and that serve no legitimate purpose, and repeatedly communicating by any means, including electronic means (cyberstalking), with such person(s) in a manner likely to harass, intimidate, annoy, or create nuisance or alarm.

c. Dangerous conditions: No student shall create a condition that endangers or threatens the safety or well-being of him/her or others. Alleged violations on the basis of sex/gender that fall under sexual misconduct will follow the procedures provided in Section VII.

g. Hazing: In connection with an affiliation to any organization, group, team, or sports club: no student shall (i) endanger the mental, physical, or emotional health of a person, intentionally or recklessly, by commission or omission, regardless of whether the other person has consented to the activity; (ii) participate in activities on or off University property, involving the forced or expected consumption of alcohol, drugs or other substances, or damage, destroy, tamper with, or remove public or private property.

This includes, but is not limited to, University furniture, computer equipment, access control systems or facilities. Tampering with building technology not limited to door controls, audio visual equipment, and elevator controls is prohibited. No student shall override room thermostat systems to drastically alter room temperature. Any costs to repair, replace, restore, or clean University property to its original condition will be assessed to individuals and/or groups responsible for damaging, or defacing such property in addition to any sanctions which may be imposed.

b. Unauthorized posting: Members of the campus community may, upon receiving University authorization, advertise on-campus events on designated bulletin boards and posting areas. Notices may not be placed on automobiles, windows, doors, wood, brick, concrete, asphalt or painted surfaces. The event sponsors must remove advertising within two business days following the event and are responsible for any damages incurred in the process. Additional restrictions for advertising in the Stony Brook Union, Student Activities Center, and the residence halls and apartments may apply.

c. Unauthorized posting (off-campus commercial advertising): Unauthorized posting or distribution of solicitations, advertisements or other material on campus is prohibited. Students may be the subject of student conduct action for such violations even in cases in which such students are acting on behalf of a third party (i.e., an employer and/or off-campus business).

4. Health and Safety
Students shall comply with all environmental, health, and safety requirements, including Environmental Health and Safety Policies and Procedures: (see: https://ehs.stonybrook.edu/resources/ehs-policies-and-procedures)

   4. Loss of financial aid

5. Security of Buildings, Facilities, Campus, and Motor Vehicle/Parking Policies

Students may enter and use all campus buildings and areas for the purposes assigned to these facilities and places. Exceptions to this rule may be made in the interests of safety, personal use and privacy, protection of valuable materials and equipment or to regulate access according to the hours that are normal for their assigned functions. When buildings or spaces within them are officially closed or restricted, limited access applies to all students unless specifically accepted. The following are applicable to the security of buildings, facilities, the campus, and motor vehicle/parking policies:

Nor shall students be permitted to park their motor vehicle in any designated handicap parking space without a valid and visible handicap plate, permit or decal. In addition to motor vehicle/parking fines levied on the campus, repeat offenders of campus motor vehicle/parking policies may be asked to remove their vehicle(s) from the campus for a period of time or permanently. Course registration may also be blocked until University motor vehicle/parking fines are paid and/or University Service assigned as a result of a violation of this section is completed.

f. Compromising community security: Propping open outside doors, unlocking lounge windows, using windows or balconies to enter and exit buildings, using unauthorized doors for entering or leaving the building, is prohibited.

6. Integrity of Transactions and Records

a. Alcoholic beverages. New York State Law and the Policy for On-Campus Sales, Services and Consumption of Alcoholic Beverages prohibit the sale, giving and serving of alcoholic beverages to those under the age of 21, and their guests, even if the guest is over the age of 21. The Campus Alcohol Policy prohibits the possession and consumption of alcoholic beverages by those under the age of 21. 13. Commercial Activities and Solicitation

The University prohibits the operation of commercial enterprises on campus. The University sets certain limits on occupancy and establishes policies to preserve the facilities and promote safety and health. By University policy, residents are responsible for maintaining good order in the residential facilities. The provisions set forth in the Terms of Occupancy are incorporated into and operate in concert with the terms of the Code. Student conduct action may be initiated under the Code against residents violating such provisions. The Terms of Occupancy are available online at: https://www.stonybrook.edu/commcms/studentaffairs/res/safety/2019-2020%20Terms%20of%20Occupancy.pdf

IV. ADMINISTRATIVE HEARING PROCESS

Alleged violations of the Code provided in Section III will be reviewed in accordance with the procedures outlined in this Section. A finding of responsibility as to each of the charges must be supported by a preponderance of the evidence; whether it is “more likely than not” that the incident occurred. If the totality of all the information presented meets this standard, then the Respondent must be found responsible. The burden of presenting such evidence rests with the Complainant(s).

1. Prehearing Procedures
   a. Complaint or Referral
      Any member of the University community (student, staff or faculty) may make a complaint and/or referral or offer information concerning such complaint and/or referral to the appropriate office or person (i.e. Dean of Students, Division of Campus Residences, Office of Institutional Diversity and Equity, Title IX Coordinator, Title IX Deputies, University Community Standards, University Police, etc.). A complaint or referral made against a student or students, alleging violation(s) of the Code, shall be directed to a University official. In an appropriate case, a University official may act as a Complainant on behalf of others in enforcing the terms of this Code. All alleged violations shall be referred to the Office of University Community Standards. In order to facilitate a timely investigation and processing of complaints, it is recommended that referrals are made within thirty (30) calendar days following the date of the incident giving rise to the complaint.
      i. Mediation (Dispute, Conflict Resolution)
         In certain situations, mediation is a process available for resolving disputes between individuals or groups. Mediation is a voluntary, confidential and non-judgmental process providing an opportunity for parties in conflict to meet with a mediator to present the issues. Mediation can be an alternative to or supplement the formal student conduct process for certain types of conflict. The mediator’s role is to facilitate a conversation between or among parties in conflict in an effort to reach an agreement. Mediation agreements are enforceable as Official Directives, and failure to comply with an agreement may be a violation of the Code. When a satisfactory agreement cannot be reached through mediation, the complaint may be referred for student conduct action, where appropriate.
   b. Investigation
      A representative from the Division of Student Affairs (University official) shall investigate and determine whether further action is necessary within a reasonably prompt time frame and in an effective manner. The investigation includes interviews and requests for written statements from the parties (i.e. Complainants, Respondents, witnesses). If the Respondent fails to respond to one written request for an interview, the University official may proceed with a review of the evidence and information. In circumstances involving investigation of complaints when the Complainant does not choose to proceed, the University official reserves the right to continue its investigation regardless of Complainant cooperation or involvement. The University will make every effort to keep all investigations confidential to the extent possible/practical.
   c. Decision to Proceed
      If in the judgment of the University official, sufficient evidence warrants further action, such official shall initiate one of the following procedures:
      i. Directive to Appear/Notice of Charges - The student charged with an alleged violation of the Code will be provided with written notice of charges and will be required either to meet with a University official for a student conduct meeting or attend a hearing on the date cited in the notice. The hearing shall be scheduled for no less than ten (10) calendar days from the date of the notice.
      ii. Student Conduct Meeting - A student conduct meeting is a meeting between a student involved in an alleged violation of the Code and a University official. In some cases, the meeting may resolve the matter and sanctions will be imposed.
   d. Hearing Waiver
      A Respondent may choose to accept responsibility for and not contest the charges against him/her. If this election is made, the student will sign a waiver of their right to a hearing, and must accept the sanction(s) identified in the waiver. A student’s decision to waive a hearing and accept the sanction is final and not appealable.
   e. Case Preparation
A University official informs the Complainant(s) and Respondent(s) of the rights and responsibilities they will have in the scheduled hearing.

f. Information in Support/Defense of Allegations

Information in support/defense of allegations (including statements, documentary and/or physical material) to be presented by Complainant(s) and Respondent(s) during any hearing on the charges must be shared with the opposing party at least two (2) business days in advance of the scheduled hearing. The University official presiding at the hearing may exclude information in support/defense of allegations that has not been shared, or adjourn the hearing to afford all parties the opportunity to review information in support/defense of allegations to be presented during the hearing. The University official presiding at the hearing will make the final decision relating to the admissibility of all information in support/defense of allegations. Hearsay information in support/defense of allegations, including written statements, may be considered. First hand oral statements subject to cross examination will be given greater weight than hearsay statements. Written statements from character witnesses are permitted into the hearing.

g. Advisors

The Complainant and Respondent may appear at the hearing with an advisor of their choice. The role of the advisor is to assist each party, but not to engage in any verbal presentation or questioning. Attorneys may serve as advisors to the parties subject to the same conditions and restrictions.

h. Attendance at Hearing

Those in attendance at the Board Hearing may include the Complainant(s), Respondent(s), their advisor(s), witness(es) (while giving statements), the presiding Hearing Officer, University official and Board (when assigned). A University observer may be present. The presiding University official shall determine whether additional persons may be present.

i. Confidentiality

In order to protect confidentiality, hearings shall be closed to members of the campus community and to the public.

2. Hearing Boards

   a. Purpose

   Hearing Boards are established for the purpose of hearing alleged violations of the policies detailed in the Code of Student Responsibility. The board will review the allegations, hear any responses, make decisions as to whether or not a policy was violated, and provide recommendations for sanctions where appropriate.

   b. Hearing Board Pool

   A Hearing Board Pool shall be selected from members of the University community (students, faculty, and staff).

   c. Composition

   Members of the Hearing Boards are selected from the Hearing Board Pool. A Hearing Board is composed of three to five members from the Hearing Board Pool. During intersession or summer sessions, or other periods when students and faculty are not readily available, the Hearing Board may be composed of at least one (1) student and one (1) faculty or staff member.

   d. Term of Service

   All Hearing Board members are expected to serve for at least one academic year and may continue to serve at the discretion of the Vice President for Student Affairs (designee) or the Assistant Vice President for Campus Residences (designee).

   e. Student Eligibility

   All students, full or part-time, shall be eligible for recruitment to serve as Hearing Board members, provided they have maintained a 2.50 cumulative grade point average, are not currently on University probation and have not been suspended from the residence halls/apartments or the University. Students with a student conduct record may be required to meet with a University official and their application may be denied.

   f. Training

   All members of the Hearing Board, upon receiving notice of appointment, shall be given necessary information about their responsibilities and the means by which they may fulfill them.

3. Hearing Procedures

Hearings provide the forum where parties to an allegation are afforded the opportunity to present information for review by either a University official/Hearing Officer or a Hearing Board. In the event that a Respondent has received notice of a hearing and elects not to appear, the hearing shall proceed in their absence and a determination of responsibility shall be made and sanctions imposed. When requested, the University will provide options for a room divider, use separate hearing rooms, or other reasonable mechanisms to directly cross examine the other party. The hearing procedures generally include the following basic steps:
a. Opening
The presiding Hearing Officer states the alleged charges and identifies the individuals present.

b. Challenge
Hearing Board members who feel they cannot fairly serve shall be excused. Conflicts of interest must be disclosed. Any party may request and cite cause for the removal of any member of the Board. The Hearing Officer will determine whether the cited cause warrants removal.

c. Student Response
The Respondent(s) will be asked to state their response (i.e., responsible or not responsible) to each of the alleged violations.

d. Complainant Presentation Complainant presentation should begin with an opening statement describing the alleged violation(s). Information in support/defense of allegations submitted by the Complainant will be provided to a University official/Hearing Officer and the Hearing Board. The Respondent, then the presiding University official/Hearing Officer or Hearing Board members may question the Complainant regarding the opening statement and significant information supporting the allegation. Complainant’s witness(es) individually present oral statements. The Complainant, then the Respondent, followed by the presiding University official/Hearing Officer or Hearing Board members may question the witness(es).

e. Respondent Presentation
Respondent presentation should begin with an opening statement describing the alleged conduct. Information in support/defense of allegations submitted by the Respondent will be provided to a University official/Hearing Officer and the Hearing Board. The Complainant, then the presiding University official/Hearing Officer or Hearing Board members may question the Respondent regarding the opening statement and information defending the allegation. Respondent’s witness(es) individually present oral statements. The Respondent, then the Complainant, followed by the presiding University official/Hearing Officer or Hearing Board members may question the witness(es).

f. Closing Statements
After all witnesses have presented statements and all questioning has been completed, closing statements are made first by the Complainant(s), then by the Respondent(s). No questioning is allowed during or after closing statements.

g. Deliberation
After closing statements have been presented, a review of information in support/defense of allegations is conducted by the Hearing Board or by the presiding University official/Hearing Officer to determine Respondent’s responsibility as to each of the charges. The presiding University official/Hearing Officer will act as a non-voting facilitator when conducting a review.

h. Decision
Upon a review of the totality of the information discussed during the deliberation process, a decision regarding the Respondent's responsibility as to each of the charges shall be made by a majority vote of the Hearing Board. A decision of responsibility shall be made only if the allegations contained in each charge have been established by a preponderance of the evidence (more likely than not standard).

i. Recommendation/Determination of Sanctions
The presiding Hearing Officer, upon consideration of the recommendation of the Hearing Board, shall recommend sanction(s) based upon the extent of responsibility determined. Upon receipt of the recommendations and after review of any previous student conduct record of the Respondent(s), the University official will make a final determination on the sanction(s). See Section V for information on student conduct sanctions.

4. Post Hearing Procedures
After the hearing procedures in Section IV.3. have taken place, the following will occur:

a. Notification/Hearing Disposition
The decision of the proceeding will be communicated in writing to the Respondent and to the Complainant by the presiding University official/Hearing Officer (or designee). Written notification (also called a disposition) will include the date and time of the hearing, the findings, and the sanctions to be imposed, if any. If the Respondent charged is found responsible and a sanction is to be imposed, the notification/disposition shall inform the Respondent of the right to an appeal and the method for submitting the appeal (see Section VI).

b. Hearing Documents
A written notification/disposition summarizing the main points of the proceedings and information in support/defense of allegations presented during the hearing become part of the proceeding’s official record. Recordings made during the hearing also become part of the official record. These materials are confidential. However, these materials are made available, in cases of appeal and upon request, to the designated University official/Hearing Officer or Hearing Board hearing the appeal and to the student(s) requesting the appeal. Unless otherwise required by law, all information obtained during the course of the investigation and hearing shall be protected from public release.
c. Enforcement
The presiding University official/Hearing Officer and other designated University officials will ensure that any sanctions imposed are carried out on behalf of the University. Information on student conduct sanctions is provided in Section V.

V. SANCTIONS

1. Determination of Sanctions
The determination of sanctions for violations of the Code shall be made by the designated University official in the case of a board hearing or by the Hearing Officer in the case of a non-board hearing. This determination shall take into consideration all relevant factors, including but not limited to, the facts and circumstances surrounding the incident(s) that gave rise to the violation, the Respondent's state of mind, any mitigating factors, and any past student conduct record of the Respondent. More serious sanctions may be imposed for multiple or repeated violations.

The Director of the Office of University Community Standards, or designee, will arrange and administer "University Service" sanctions. Failure to complete the assigned "University Service" or educational project within the specified time period and may increase the assignment or result in additional sanctions. Failure to satisfactorily complete an assigned project, program or service will result in a notation "Conduct sanction not completed" on the student's academic record. This notation will be removed upon completion of the assigned educational project, program or service.

   g. Suspension from the Residence Halls/Apartments
   A student may be required to move out of the residence halls/apartments for a given period. Any individual under suspension from the residence halls/apartments is prohibited from entering all residence facilities, residence hall cafeterias and the grounds/roadways around the residence hall quads and apartment complexes. B. Students’ Bill of Rights
All students have the right to:

1. Make a report to local law enforcement and/or state police;
2. Have disclosures of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, and sexual assault treated seriously;
3. Make a decision about whether or not to disclose a crime or violation and participate in the student conduct process and/or criminal justice process free from pressure by the University;
4. Participate in a process that is fair, impartial, and provides adequate notice and a meaningful opportunity to be heard;
5. Be treated with dignity and to receive from the institution courteous, fair, and respectful health care and counseling services, where available;
6. Be free from any suggestion that the reporting individual is at fault when these crimes and violations are committed, or should have acted in a different manner to avoid such crimes or violations;
7. Describe the incident to as few university representatives as practicable and not be required to unnecessarily repeat a description of the incident;
8. Be protected from retaliation by the University, any student, the accused and or the Respondent, and/or their friends, family and acquaintances within the jurisdiction of the University;
9. Access to at least one level of appeal of a determination;
10. Be accompanied by an advisor of choice who may assist and advise a reporting individual, accused, or Respondent throughout the student conduct process including during all meetings and hearings related to such process; and
11. Exercise civil rights and practice of religion without interference by investigative, criminal justice, or student conduct process of the University.

The University has outlined in the following pages the sexual misconduct policy and the procedure for adjudicating any allegations when the accused (Respondent) is a student (as defined in Section I).

C. Sexual Misconduct Policy

1. Confidentiality
The Office of University Community Standards (UCS) in collaboration with the Title IX Investigator will conduct the investigation in a confidential manner to the extent practicable and/or permitted by law. The parties and witnesses are expected to cooperate fully in the investigation, and maintain and preserve the confidentiality of the investigation. Hearings shall be closed to members of the campus community and to the public. Student conduct records, except as hereinafter provided, will be confidential in accordance with Federal and State laws relating to disclosure.

2. Privacy versus Confidentiality
Students who wish to speak confidentially about an incident should contact Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPs) at (631) 632-6720 or for confidential medical resource, the SAFE (Sexual Assault Forensic Examiner) Program at (631) 360-3606.

Even Stony Brook University offices and employees who cannot guarantee confidentiality will maintain your privacy to the greatest extent possible. The information you provide to a non-confidential resource will be relayed only as necessary for University Community Standards and the Title IX Coordinator and/or Title IX Investigator to investigate and/or seek a resolution as required under Federal and State law. Stony Brook University will limit the disclosure as much as possible, even if the Title IX Coordinator determines that the request for confidentiality cannot be honored.

3. Obligation to Investigate
If a student discloses an alleged incident of sexual misconduct to a non-confidential employee that disclosure may be reported to the Title IX Coordinator whether or not the student requests confidentiality. Certain Stony Brook employees, designated as responsible employees, are required to report incidents of sexual misconduct.

If the Title IX Coordinator becomes aware of an incident of sexual misconduct, Stony Brook may be required to investigate. The Title IX Coordinator may not be able to honor a request not to investigate or for confidentiality if failure to investigate does not adequately mitigate a potential risk of harm to the reporting individual or other members of the community. The Title IX Coordinator must weigh the request against Stony Brook’s obligation to provide a safe, welcoming and non-discriminatory environment. Factors used to determine whether to or not to honor a request for confidentiality or not to investigate include (but are not limited to):

a. whether the respondent has a history of violent behavior or is repeat offender;
b. the increased risk that the respondent will commit additional acts of violence;
c. whether the accused used a weapon or force;
d. whether the reporting individual is a minor;
e. whether the University has other means to obtain evidence such as security footage;
f. and whether available information reveals a pattern at a given location or by a particular group.

Stony Brook may provide interim measures or other assistance to a reporting individual regardless of whether that individual consents to an investigation.

If an individual discloses information through a public awareness event such as candlelight vigils, protests, or other public event, Stony Brook is not obligated to begin an investigation based on this information.

4. Amnesty
The health and safety of every student at the State University of New York and its State-operated and community colleges is of utmost importance. Stony Brook University recognizes that students who have been drinking and/or using drugs (whether such use is voluntary or involuntary) at the time that violence, including but not limited to domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual assault occurs may be hesitant to report such incidents due to fear of potential consequences for their own conduct. Stony Brook University strongly encourages students to report domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual assault to University officials. A bystander acting in good faith or a reporting individual acting in good faith that discloses any incident of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual assault to Stony Brook University officials or law enforcement will not be subject to Stony Brook University Code of Student Responsibility action for violations of alcohol and/or drug use policies occurring at or near the time of the commission of the domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual assault.

5. Retaliation
Retaliation against an employee, student or any witness who participates in any University investigation is prohibited. Retaliation is also prohibited against any individual who files a sex discrimination complaint or participates in a complaint investigation in any manner. Any substantiated act of retaliation may result in sanctions or other student conduct action as covered by the Code of Student Responsibility or University policy and/or the conduct procedures pursuant to the applicable collective bargaining agreements and applicable policies and procedures.

6. Sexual Misconduct
Sexual misconduct, which can occur in many forms, is discrimination on the basis of sex and/or gender, and may occur between people of the same or opposite sex, or who identify as LGBTQ, and it is prohibited. No student shall engage in stalking. The term stalking means intentionally engaging in a course of conduct, directed at a specific person, which is likely to cause a reasonable person to fear his or her safety or the safety of others or cause that person to suffer substantial emotional damage. Examples include, but are not limited to, repeatedly following such person(s), repeatedly committing acts that alarm, cause fear, or seriously annoy such other person(s) and that serve no legitimate purpose, and repeatedly communicating by any means, including electronic means (cyberstalking), with such person(s) in a manner likely to harass, intimidate, annoy, or create a nuisance or alarm.

7. Affirmative Consent
Affirmative consent is a knowing, voluntary, and mutual decision among all participants to engage in sexual activity. Consent can be given by words or actions, as long as those words or actions create clear permission regarding willingness to engage in the sexual activity. Silence or lack of resistance, in and of itself, does not demonstrate consent. The definition of consent does not vary based upon a participant's sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression.

a. Non-consent/Limitations of Consent
   i. Consent to any sexual contact or any specific sexual act cannot be given if an individual is under the age of 17.
ii. Consent to any sexual act or prior consensual sexual activity between or with any party does not necessarily constitute consent to any other sexual act.

iii. Consent to engage in sexual activity with one person does not imply consent to engage in sexual activity with any other person.

iv. Consent is required regardless of whether the person initiating the act is under the influence of drugs and/or alcohol.

v. Consent cannot be given when a person is incapacitated, which occurs when an individual lacks the ability to knowingly choose to participate in sexual activity. Incapacitation may be caused by:
   a. A physical or mental condition, infirmity or disability that limited informed decision making;
   b. The lack of consciousness or being asleep;
   c. Being involuntarily restrained; or
   d. If an individual otherwise cannot consent.

vi. Depending on the degree of intoxication, someone who is under the influence of alcohol, drugs, or other intoxicants (whether involuntary or voluntary) may be incapacitated and therefore unable to consent.
   a. Consent cannot be given when it is the result of any coercion, intimidation, force, or threat of immediate or future harm.
   b. Coercion is the use of an unreasonable amount of pressure to engage in sexual activity. Coercion is more than an effort to persuade, entice or attract another person to engage in sexual activity.
   c. Intimidation is an implied threat that menaces or causes reasonable fear in another person.

vii. Consent cannot be given when it is the result of the use of physical intimidation to secure compliance with sexual activity.

viii. Intoxication or impairment of the Respondent is no defense to charges of sexual misconduct.

b. Revocation of Consent
   i. Consent may be initially given, but it may be revoked/or withdrawn at any time, either verbally, through physical resistance, or by losing consciousness.
   ii. When consent is withdrawn or cannot be given, sexual activity must stop.
   iii. Failure to cease sexual contact promptly in response to withdrawal of consent constitutes prohibited non-consensual sexual contact.

D. Sexual Misconduct Procedures/Resolving Complaints

The Complainant has the right to make a complaint against the Respondent. If charges are brought and a hearing is conducted, a finding of responsibility as to each of the charges must be supported by a preponderance of the evidence; whether it is “more likely than not” that the incident occurred. The Respondent enjoys a presumption of not responsible unless and until proven otherwise by a preponderance of the evidence. If the totality of all the information presented meets this standard, then the Respondent will be found responsible.

1. Time Limits
   In the interest of ensuring a safe and welcoming environment at University facilities and University sponsored programs or affiliated activities there is no time limit which bars the reporting of an incident of alleged sexual misconduct. Note, however, that the more time that lapses between the incident and the investigation the more difficult it will be for the University to obtain complete and accurate witness statements and other information to address the complaint.

2. Time Frame
   Absent extenuating circumstances, the investigation process from receipt of a complaint through determination is expected to take place within ninety (90) calendar days from the University’s receipt of the complaint. Note however, the period of time required to take in an initial inquiry, report or complaint from the initial interview process through the conclusion of the investigation and resolution, may be impacted by various factors, such as the complexity of the case, immediate availability of parties, witnesses and other information in support or defense of an allegation, ongoing criminal investigations, etc. Therefore the time frame may exceed ninety (90) calendar days.

Stony Brook University will comply with law enforcement requests for cooperation, which may require the Office of University Community Standards and other University offices to temporarily suspend the fact-finding aspect of a Title IX-related investigation while the law enforcement agency is in the process of gathering evidence. Temporary delays should not last more than ten (10) business days except when law enforcement specifically requests and justifies a longer delay. Stony Brook University will promptly resume its investigation as soon as notified by the law enforcement agency that it has completed the evidence gathering process. As necessary, Stony Brook University will implement appropriate interim steps during the law enforcement agency’s investigation to provide for the safety of the parties and the University community, and to avoid retaliation.

3. Timely Notice of Meetings
   Both parties will be given timely notice of any meeting they are required or eligible to attend.
4. Interim Measures
When deemed necessary the University will take appropriate interim measures concerning the interaction of the parties: Pending the investigation process; Before the final outcome of the investigation and if applicable; Review Panel. Interim measures include but are not limited to:

a. “No-contact” Directive
   Imposing a “no contact” directive means that the parties are prohibited from having contact with one another, directly or through proxies, whether in person or via electronic means. Intentional contact with the other party is a violation of University policy and may result in additional conduct charges.

b. Interim Suspension
   Whenever the continued presence of a student charged with Code violations would constitute a danger to the student or to the safety of persons or property on the premises of the institution, or his/her presence would pose a threat of disruptive interference with the normal conduct of the institution’s activities and functions, or the seriousness of the charges warrants such action, the Vice President of Student Affairs or designee may issue an Interim Suspension may apply to a portion of the University or the entire campus.

c. Alternate Academic Scheduling
   A student’s academic schedule may be altered/limited. Limitations include: restricting parties from attending class/classes, reassigning parties to a different class section, allowing parties to attend their scheduled class but with restrictions, allowing students to attend classes but requiring parties to sign in and out, restricting parties from certain areas of campus, restricting parties from campus but allowing parties to fulfill class requirements via internet, restricting parties from attending graduation or other ceremonies, etc.

d. Campus Restrictions
   Students may be restricted from: certain areas/buildings/facilities/departments/offices on campus, participating in events/activities/sponsored events, parking and/or driving on campus or in certain areas, or from utilizing certain services including but not limited to, using Stony Brook bus services, etc.

e. Technological Restrictions
   Students may be restricted from accessing campus internet or SINC sites, and/or another party’s Stony Brook email accounts.

f. Housing Restrictions
   Students may be restricted from certain buildings/quads/areas on campus, relocating parties to different room assignments; or have their guest privileges restricted.

g. Employment Restrictions
   Employment, including but are not limited to, restricting the dates/times/locations/hours permitted to work.

Both the Complainant and the Respondent may request a prompt review, reasonable under the circumstances, of the need for and terms of an interim measure (b. through g.), including potential modification and shall be allowed to present evidence in support of his or her request.

5. Student Conduct Conference
When the evidence does not merit conduct charges but concerns regarding conduct or escalating behavior remain, the University may request that a student attend a Student Conduct Conference to review the University’s concerns and the applicable sections of the Code of Student Responsibility. Students will be encouraged to be more mindful of the Code of Student Responsibility and their behavior. When appropriate the student may be advised at a Student Conduct Conference of any interim measures during the investigation that will continue.

6. Prehearing Procedure
A University official will inform the Complainant(s) and Respondent(s) of the scheduled hearing.

a. Navigator
   The Complainant(s) and Respondent(s) will each be offered a Navigator by the University. The role of the Navigator(s) is to assist the parties throughout the process. Navigator(s) may be present at any meetings or hearings with their assigned parties but may not engage in any verbal presentation or questioning at the Review Panel.

b. Advisor
   In addition to a Navigator, the parties may each select an advisor of their choice. However, the parties may each have only one person at the Review Panel. Advisors for either party may advise or assist but may not engage in any verbal presentation or questioning at the Review Panel. Attorneys may serve as advisors to the parties, subject to the same limitations and conditions as delineated above.

c. Investigation
   Investigations will be conducted by a University Investigator in accordance with the time frame set forth in Section VII.D.2. The Investigator is a neutral, fact-finding, impartial individual who is trained annually in investigating sexual misconduct complaints.

   i. The investigation will include interviews with the parties and witnesses.

   ii. Both parties will have the opportunity to offer information in support or defense of allegation(s).

   iii. Students are expected to cooperate with the investigation, however, failure to respond to request for timely meetings will not halt the investigation.

   iv. In circumstances involving the investigation of complaints where the Complainant does not choose to proceed, the University official reserves the right to continue its investigation regardless of Complainant cooperation or involvement.
9. Review Panel Hearing
   a. Admittance of Prior Sexual/Mental Health History/Student Conduct History
