

Summer Travel Award to St. Petersburg, Russia

(for Stony Brook Faculty in Humanities and Social Sciences)

The Stony Brook Office of Global Affairs and the Post-Socialism Research Institute are pleased to announce the 2019 Travel Award to St. Petersburg, Russia for faculty in the Humanities or Social Sciences. The winner participates in the 17th New York-St. Petersburg Institute of Linguistics, Cognition and Culture (NYI 17), to be held in St. Petersburg, Russia, July 15-August 3, 2019, and works with the Stony Brook “Explore St. Petersburg!” Study Abroad Program.

Seminars will be held in English.

NYI students are advanced undergraduate and graduate students from the former Soviet Union, Eastern and Western Europe, the US, and beyond, representing a diverse range of fields. Each faculty member teaches one 3-week seminar (eight 75-80 minute meetings) and gives one general lecture and one short mini-conference presentation.

Faculty in all Humanities and Social Science fields may apply. Other faculty will also be considered. Preference will be given to faculty with robust ideas for integration with existing SB Undergraduate programs, and for UG student recruitment to the program.

The Award covers international and local travel, visa and registration expenses, and apartment accommodation in St. Petersburg.
