10 TOP THINGS TO DO THIS WEEK

1 Sakura Matsuri at Stony Brook

WHEN | WHERE Noon-5 p.m. Sunday, May 1, at the Charles B. Wang Center at Stony Brook University. Rain or shine.
INFO 631-632-4400, thewangcenter.org
ADMISSION $20 (free younger than 12) includes all programs, which are otherwise free to $10 each

It's just bloomin' beautiful. Spring returns in a formal way to Stony Brook University with the annual Sakura Matsuri — the Cherry Blossom Festival.

The Japanese cultural event opens a window into the Eastern world with origami, kimono dress-ups and Ikebana flower-arranging workshops ($10).

See a tea ceremony ($10) or watch cosplay enthusiasts dressed as Japanese manga anime characters. The campus' Jasmine Dining Hall will sell bento boxes and sushi rolls.

Cosplay fans will dress as Japanese manga anime characters.
