HEAD TO THE DEN!

WOLFIE FILMMAKING GEAR & COMPUTER DEN N-3036 - MELVILLE - 3rd FL

Creativity is always on the horizon with the FILMMAKING + TV WRITING MINOR! Whether it be a social impact film, fiction narrative, non-fiction doc, a newly drafted TV pilot or sketch - we got you covered. Come visit us!

We'll be unveiling our computer lab with 7 brand new iMacs loaded with Adobe CC Premiere Pro, Davinci 18 and iMovie ready; 2 of the 7 machines will have FINAL DRAFT loaded as well for your screenplays and/or pilots.

For 100 level classes we have a basic lighting kit and tripods to offer. For 200 level and above classes we have 8 sound packs with Zoom Recorders/Shotgun Mics/Boom Poles - full size tripods - simple and LED light packs - reflectors and some other DIY lighting to hone your cinematography skills!

TV WRITING

Check out FLM 215 and Kate Levitt's TVW 220! We are excited to bring TV Writing to the Spring '22 semester!

Ever wonder how to write a gripping TV Series; one that makes audiences tune in week after week? If so, sign up for TV writing! Students will explore and create fascinating characters, fine tuning their ability to write dialogue, and generating compelling storylines. You could be the next Joey Soloway, Amy Sherman-Palladino or Vince Gilligan!

Reach out if you are interested! We can work with you on pre-reqs.

With a background in music and performance, freshman Loomis Hall - FLM/TVW STUDENT ASSISTANT has taken up residence in the gear room. Having survived most of the semester in a room with no windows, he is proud of the progress that has taken place within the room behind N-3036, and looks forward to continuing to address students' equipment needs.

SBU-TV & FILM PRODUCTIONS CLUB

The SBU-TV AND FILM PRODUCTIONS CLUB

...is a dedicated and growing student media organization with the mission of fostering an outlet for film and video production on campus by producing and assisting in the creation of student videos, capturing and highlighting events/activities across our diverse student body, and providing a welcoming, educational, and creative atmosphere for those interested in involving themselves in film making and video production. They have a wide array of professional video equipment available for members to use and learn.

They hold their meetings every Wednesday night in SAC307H from 8-9pm. Their weekly meetings consist of hands-on sessions and workshops where we show members how to produce their own content. They also host an annual film festival where they premiere student lead projects and content for all to see!
