Policy Statement/Background:

None

Policy:

Students, faculty, and staff have the right to be free from acts or threats of disruptive behavior and/or physical violence, including intimidation, harassment and/or coercion, which involve or affect the University Community. The University does not tolerate any student, faculty member, administrator, or employee, acting individually or in concert with others, who clearly obstructs or disrupts any teaching, research, administrative, disciplinary, public service activity or any other workplace activity held on campus property. The University prohibits retaliation against those who report or cooperate in the investigation of disruptive behavior.

Procedure

Procedures and guidelines to follow when instances of disruptive behavior occur can be found on the University’s Human Resource Services website, at: Disruptive Behavior Procedure
