

HDS

Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery

HDS 702: Oral Pathology

Covers the clinical and histopathologic manifestations of acquired, inherited and neoplastic diseases of the human oral cavity. Includes benign and malignant tumors of bone, odontogenic and non-odontogenic cysts and tumors, mucosal and salivary gland diseases, and oral manifestations of systemic diseases.
62 course hours Prerequisites: HDO 601

3 credits, Letter graded (A, A-, B+, etc.)