THE UNIVERSITY

tony Brook University is a public coeducational university and one of four State University of New York university centers. As a major international institution with a reputation for excellence, Stony Brook offers a full spectrum of undergraduate, graduate, and professional programs through the doctoral degree. Its diverse missions include teaching, research, health care, regional economic and cultural development, and a unique college experience for its students.

Stony Brook has exceptional strength in the sciences, mathematics, humanities, fine arts, social sciences, engineering, and health professions, with the University as a whole and many of its programs individually ranked among the top fifty nationwide (The Gourman Report, 1998).

Stony Brook's world-class faculty are intellectual leaders in their disciplines. With 1,902 faculty members, the faculty-student ratio is about one faculty member for every 14 students. All of Stony Brook's full-time faculty hold doctoral degrees or the highest degree in their field and more than 90 percent are engaged in active research leading to publication.

LOCATION

Situated on 1,100 wooded acres, Stony Brook is located midway between New York City and the resort area of the Hamptons on Long Island's East End.

Annual temperatures may range from 0°F (-18°C) in the winter (December-March) to over 90°F (30°C) in the summer (June-September).

Two international airports, JFK and LaGuardia, are an easy limousine ride away. And, the Long Island Railroad maintains a station on the perimeter of campus, enabling students to travel by train to the heart of one of the most exciting cities in the world – New York City – in only two hours.

STUDENT BODY

Stony Brook enrolls 21,989 full- and part-time students — 14,224 undergraduates and 7,765 graduate and professional students. Students hail from all 50 states and 80 foreign countries.

CAMPUS RESIDENCES

The residence halls on campus are organized as small residential colleges in order to foster social, intellectual, and cultural interaction. Each residential college has public lounges, laundry rooms, kitchen facilities, and recreational facilities. Every residence hall room is equipped with a telephone, high speed internet access, and cable television hookup. There are also state-of-the-art fitness and computing centers located in every quad available free of charge to all residents.

COSTS

For 2003-2004, the estimated minimum first year expenses for an international undergraduate student totals $25,000. Tuition is $10,300; Fees are $956. Mandatory Health Insurance is $620. Room and board costs are $7,457. Books and supplies are estimated at $900. Personal expenses are estimated at $6,767. (These amounts are subject to change without notice.) Many students will require additional funds. Additional fees are likely to be required depending upon individual circumstances.

THE INTENSIVE ENGLISH CENTER

The Intensive English Center (IEC) offers an English language program for potential Stony Brook students and all international students who need full-time English instruction prior to matriculation. A brochure will be mailed to students upon written request email to: iec@stonybrook.edu or write to: Intensive English Center, Library E5320, Stony Brook University, Stony Brook, NY 11794-3390, USA. Or, visit the IEC Web site, www.stonybrook.edu/iec, for more information. You may contact IEC by phone at 631-632-7031 or by fax at 631-632-6544.

ORIENTATION FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

In addition to Stony Brook's New Student Programs Orientation, International Student Services holds a mandatory 3-day orientation program prior to the beginning of the fall and spring semesters which is required for all new international students. The Office for International Student Services, the International Student Advisor, and the Career Counseling Office are among the many resources available to students on campus.

ACADEMIC CALENDAR

Stony Brook's academic year starts in late August and ends mid-May, with the exception of some Health Sciences Center programs that begin in June or July.

ATHLETIC PROGRAMS

Stony Brook Seawolves' 20 varsity teams all compete in NCAA Division I and include men's baseball and football, women's softball, and volleyball, and men's and women's basketball, cross country, lacrosse, soccer, swimming, tennis, and both indoor and outdoor track and field.

The following checklist will help you organize your application and supporting documentation required for timely consideration of your application.

- All information must be printed or typed clearly and double checked for accuracy; inaccurate and incomplete forms will cause delays in reviewing your application.
- All documents must bear your full legal name exactly as it is printed on your passport and academic records.
- All documents (other than academic records) must be submitted in English.
- All documents must be originals (no photocopies or faxes will be accepted).

Application

- All items on the 3-page Application for Undergraduate International Students form (included) must be completed; be sure to sign and date the last page.

Application fee (non-refundable)

- Include check or money order or credit card authorization for $40 (do not send cash). Check or money order: $40 U.S. Dollars payable to Stony Brook University/Account #910554. Print your full legal name clearly on the check or money order. Credit card: complete all credit card information on page 1 of the application form (included).

Essay

- A one page autobiographical statement or essay discussing a subject of interest or a personal experience written by you must accompany your application.

Test Scores

- An official score report for the TOEFL (Test of English as a Foreign Language) or SAT must be sent directly to Undergraduate Admissions. Stony Brook’s code number is 2548. The TOEFL must be taken by those whose native languages are not English, even if they have attended school in the U.S. This also includes transfer students who have not completed a college-level writing course at a U.S. college or university. A minimum composite score of 213 (computer-based) or 550 (paper-based) on the TOEFL examination or a minimum SAT I Verbal score of 430 is required. Satisfactory completion of an Intensive English Center’s advanced level class is accepted in place of a TOEFL or SAT verbal score.

Academic Records
Note: Student copies will not be accepted. Photocopies must be officially certified copies of the original. The submission of falsified documents will be considered grounds for rejection.

- Complete, official secondary school records with official seal, stamp or signature of a school or government official must be submitted in the original language (if not in English, it must be accompanied by an exactly worded and certified translation).
- Transfer applicants only: Official transcripts with official seal, stamp or signature of a school or government official must be submitted in the original language for each post-secondary institution of higher education attended (if not in English, it must be accompanied by an exactly worded and certified translation).

Financial Documents (required of all F-1 and J-1 student applicants)
Note: You are strongly advised to keep an additional set of these documents to facilitate your visa application. Stony Brook does not offer financial assistance or scholarships to international undergraduate students.

- A carefully completed Declaration & Certification of Finances form (included) that documents financial support for the entire period of anticipated study at Stony Brook must be submitted. All applicants who are currently on, wishing to obtain, or switching to an F-1 (Student) or J-1 (Exchange Visitor) visa are required to demonstrate their ability to meet all educational and living expenses for the entire period of their intended study. Currently, an excess of $25,000.00 U.S. currency is required for each year of study at Stony Brook for the duration of the program. This amount is subject to change without notice. It is anticipated that cost will increase 7-10% each year; take this into consideration when completing financial documents. Please be advised that $25,000 U.S. currency represents the absolute minimum needed to live at a very modest level on Long Island. Many students will require additional funds.
- If funds are being provided by family and/or sponsor(s), each sponsor must complete, in its entirety, an Affidavit of Support form (included) and submit it along with financial documents as stated on the form (duplicate this form as necessary). This form must be notarized.
- A separate original bank letter or statement for each source of funds must be submitted. Account statements and letters must show actual amount in account and its U.S. Dollar equivalent and must be current.
- All family/sponsor(s) must provide letters of employment verifying annual income. If self-employed, a letter from an accountant, attorney or bank official verifying income is required. If submitting tax returns for proof of income, they must be from the previous year.

International Students Already Studying in the U.S.

- F-1 students are required to submit photocopies of all Form I-20’s issued to you (pages 1 & 3 of SEVIS I-20’s; pages 3 & 4 pre-SEVIS I-20’s); J-1 applicants should submit photocopy of DS-2019.
- Submit photocopy of both sides of your current Form I-94 (stapled in your passport upon arrival in the U.S.).
- Enclose photocopy of the page in your passport that includes your identification photo (both U.S. visa page and home country’s page).
- F-1 & J-1 students applying to Stony Brook who currently attend U.S. high schools, colleges, universities, or language institutes must complete the applicant portion of the International Student Transfer Report (Included) and then submit it to the Designated School Official or Responsible Officer at your current school (usually the International Student Advisor) for completion. Make sure the completed form is returned to Stony Brook’s Undergraduate Admissions Office. A final admission decision will not be reached until this form is on file in our office.

Be sure to complete and mail all of the forms included in this packet, along with your essay, application fee, and all supporting documents to:

NOTE: All applicants must respond to Questions 34a and 34b. This information is mandated by the State University of New York. A felony is defined as a crime for which more than one year in prison may be imposed. The felony question applies only to applicants who have been convicted as adults. Applicants who have been adjudicated as having juvenile delinquent or youthful offender status are not required to respond to the felony question. An affirmative response to either question will not automatically prevent admission, but applicants will be asked to provide additional information to be reviewed by a campus committee with an eye towards ensuring campus safety. Any falsification or omission of data may result in a denial of admission or disciplinary action.

34a. Have you ever been convicted of a felony?  Yes  No

34b. Have you ever been dismissed, and or suspended from a school for disciplinary reasons?  Yes  No

1 When applying to the University, transfer students who want to major in computer science or information systems must select an alternate major. You must be enrolled in the University prior to seeking admission to either of these restricted majors. After you are enrolled at Stony Brook, you may then apply for admission to either the computer science or information systems major.

2 Only freshmen seeking admission to these health science programs should use this application and these curriculum codes.

3 The Health Sciences Center offers upper-division bachelor’s degree programs in clinical laboratory sciences, cytotechnology, nursing, physician assistant, respiratory care, and social work that require a minimum of 57 credits and specific course prerequisites for admission. A BS in Health Science requires 91 liberal arts and specific health-related credits. A combined BS in Health Sciences/MS in Occupational Therapy program requires 57 credits and specific course prerequisites for admission. If you are seeking admission to Stony Brook to complete the required credits and specific course prerequisites in order to be eligible to apply for any of these Health Sciences Center programs, you should complete this application, selecting an alternate major. If you have already completed the required credits and specific course prerequisites and are seeking admission directly into any of the Health Sciences Center programs, do not use this application; call the Health Sciences Center Office of Student Services at (631) 444-2111 to obtain the appropriate application(s).

Visa Information: No applicant should attempt to enter the U.S. for study at Stony Brook without an official letter of admission and appropriate visa documents (I-20 or DS-2019) issued by Stony Brook. International students who are admitted into the undergraduate program at Stony Brook will need to obtain the Form I-20 (Certificate of Eligibility) from the University in order to enter and/or remain in the U.S. in F-1 Student or J-1 Exchange Visitor status. This applies whether you are a new student, a transfer student from another U.S. university, or a student transferring from another SUNY or CUNY campus. The Certificate of Eligibility (Form I-20) will be issued only after you are admitted and have properly completed and returned the Declaration and Certification of Finances and Affidavit of Support with all requested original documents verifying that you have adequate financial resources to meet your expenses during the entire period of anticipated study at Stony Brook. Admissions and visa documents cannot be transferred from one semester to another or from one university to another. The issuance of the I-20 is not a guarantee of receiving the F-1 student visa. Requirements for the F-1 visa vary from country to country, so you should be prepared to present to the embassy/consulate office your I-20, passport and whatever additional documents are requested (i.e. financial documents, titles, fixed assets).

To Apply As A Freshman

International applicants seeking freshman admission should meet the following criteria:

• Completion of the highest level of secondary education in your country of residence.
• Have not taken university-level or post-secondary work after secondary graduation.
• A strong secondary academic program with courses in math, natural sciences, and English (or, if English is the language of instruction, another language).

To Apply As A Transfer

International applicants who have attended a college or university after graduating from secondary school must apply as transfers. We require transfer applicants to have performed well in a strong academic program and successful applicants have usually completed twenty-four credits with a cumulative grade point average of 2.5 (on a 4.0 scale) or fifteen credits with a 3.0 cumulative grade point average. Academic transcripts are required for all universities or post-secondary institutions you have attended. Failure to provide academic transcripts of all previous academic studies, even when not relevant to current studies, can be viewed as misrepresentation of your background and could jeopardize your application.

Stony Brook will accept all transfer credits earned at approved post-secondary institutions that were passed with a grade of C or higher. Applicants will have their credits evaluated for applicability toward their degree and the University’s general education requirements by the Undergraduate Transfer Office. Courses accepted for transfer must be evaluated by the appropriate academic department for specific applicability toward major requirements or the 39 upper-division credit requirement.
