Why Choose Stony Brook?

We Welcome International Students

Stony Brook attracts students from all over the world who want to accelerate their academic and professional success. A wide network of resources will help you feel at home right from the very start, and each fall two first-year international students with a vision for enhancing intercultural understanding are awarded #YouAreWelcomeHere scholarships.

Top Rankings

We are an internationally recognized research institution and one of only four University Centers in the State University of New York (SUNY) system. QS World University Rankings listed Stony Brook University among the top 1% of higher education institutions in the world in 2018, and as the No. 1 public university in New York State in 2020.

Top Teachers

Our award-winning faculty include Nobel Prize and Pulitzer Prize winners, MacArthur Fellows and Fields Medalists. C.N. Yang, professor emeritus of the C.N. Yang Institute for Theoretical Physics, was Stony Brook's first Nobel Prize recipient. The MRI technology that won the Nobel Prize for Medicine was invented at Stony Brook. Here, you will learn from those who are generating the knowledge that is transforming the world.

Affordable Excellence

Stony Brook is a highly selective yet affordable institution, seeking to enroll those students demonstrating the intellectual curiosity and academic ability to succeed. First-year admission is based primarily on the strength and breadth of the student's academic preparatory program, grade point average and English proficiency scores. Other criteria include a letter of recommendation and an essay.

Stony Brook University's tuition and fees are among the lowest in the region. Additionally, we offer international students up to 50% tuition with the #YouAreWelcomeHere scholarships. Merit scholarships are offered with admission.
